Andrei-Lucian Drăgoi ^{1,2}

(MD pediatrician specialist with PhD in course, independent researcher and publisher, amateur composer)

My name is Andrei-Lucian Drăgoi and I am an MD pediatrician specialist (I practice at the Emergency County Hospital in Targoviste, Dambovita county, Romania), an amateur composer (former collaborator of the Romanian Doctors' Orchestra "dr. Ermil Nichifor").

My online guest book: www.dragoii.com

My YouTube channel as an amateur composer: <https://www.youtube.com/user/AndreiLucianDragoi>

My SMP account of original scores and arrangements: <http://smp.dragoii.com>

I've published 10 audio albums until present (which represent the first cycle of albums audio in the world interpreted almost entirely by an artificial intelligence software called "Note Performer 3" (NP3), a great technical conquest and a great help for all composers, especially for amateurs, especially in troubled times of COVID-19 pandemic in which the restrictions were drastic with the artists and in which it was a considerable effort to gather a few instrumentalists to record an album, not to mention an entire orchestra, not to mention the expenses of rehearsals and recordings).

All the works on the 10 albums can be found in this unified YouTube list:

<https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PL7ab4IyszQPgW0ic1CnZrdCMVMJQgr82h>

I've also managed until present to publish the video scores of 3 of my albums:

In June 2022, I have published a piano concert in two versions (an orchestral one and a chamber one):

In November 2022, I've also published a Violin concerto in E minor (which is in fact a suite of 4 subconcertos summing about 65 minutes, a replica to Vivaldi's „The Four Seasons” which I've named „The sad seasons of humankind”):
